is the great mystery of the Church that is known by the name of Jesus Christ. The war of life has continued since the cross, so our final war with the government must continue also. If we lose our war against the man on the ladder and the war of life, the Cross will be seen as a mistake of the Church. The Cross would lose its meaning as the great sin, mystery, and sacrifice. The Cross would be seen as something that "killed God and created a sinner" (Noah Hale). We have already lost the battle of life, and this is in direct conflict with the government.

We lost the war of life to the the ruling class and government by not joining the battle (David Berlinski). By not taking a stand against the dark forces of the real Gentile Nazi regime, we have once again fallen into the trap of the dark forces. This was the main point of the Catechism of the Catholic Church "When I am weak, this is my strength" (my translation). This was also the main point of the writings of St. Thomas Aquinas and St. Paul (Theologia Naturalis). This is also the main point of the writings of President John F. Kennedy, who said "Let us not negotiate out of fear, but let us face the future with courage." The war must continue because once this war is won, the devilish ideology which falsely calls itself "Liberalism" will be destroyed as the true enemy of the
