“I can’t wait to be a superhero.” That’s what Claudia was thinking about recently when she walked into her biology class. “I really want to just be able to save people from their pain.” “Maybe you’ll be a crime-fighting superhero like Batman,” her friend Alex said with a grin. “With a cool outfit.” “Ugh, I’m not that nerdy,” Claudia said, rolling her eyes. “I like to read comic books and play football.” Her next door neighbor, Brian, chimed in. “You could be a superhero if you wanted to,” he said. “You could help people heal from life.” “Like you helped your dad.” “Yeah. And people would be so grateful.” “What if they don’t want to be healed?” Claudia asked. “What if they don’t want to just leave their pain?” It was a thoughtful question for her age. She was thirteen, but she had obviously been thinking about this a lot lately. Her parents were working, but she hadn’t been able to go in to see them at the hospital last night. It was a couple days before they would even be released from the hospital. She was so glad that she had a free hour before

SHADOWS IN THE DARKNESS is a fantasy, demon-slaying, co-op roguelite dungeon crawler in development at Star-Crossed Games. The game has been in Early Access on Steam since 2015. The final release is coming out shortly. As to why I consider Shadows in the Darkness a rogue-lite, this is what development so far has produced so far: Rogue-Lite Characters and Classes: You are a demon-slaying demoncat, roaming the shadow-filled dungeons of a massive, randomly generated dungeon network to battle against various enemies and bosses. Characters vary quite a bit, with different abilities, equipment, and skills. Monsters are much more varied than what the developer expected them to be so this is a far more diverse game than the developer had initially planned. Roguelite Mode: See the opening paragraph for more information. Demo: Apply for testing! I have 30 openings for testing on my game development platform. If you haven't yet created a free account, we will be glad to accept your tests. You will have a chance to see the engine in action and to test all features. Add me on steam : Add me on itch : I'm always here if you Ghostrunner is a game created to give you an immensely challenging real-time-strategy gameplay experience in which to experience your luck. FPP games are non-competitive. All you need is to get familiar with the basic mechanic and to try and improve your skills to reach a higher rank. The ranking is divided into four levels which are associated with four difficulty levels. In these levels, you need to find a balance between choosing the correct upgrades to improve your equipment and managing your tactical movements to get the most out of your equipment. This pack include some items for enhancing your character:

Ghostrunner Halloween Pack Items - Ghostrunner Halloween Pack Items i have been reading news for a while now and about this content. i am wondering if there is gonna be any sort of campaign to accompany this content or even a better campaign. i mean i played ghostrunner more than 7 years ago and i think you should provide some more story/mission to help players retain more in the game, it is kinda boring hearing about ghosts and spooky paranormal stuff. at least you should be able to find out what happened in the past and now. i mean if you just tell about ghosts. look there was something about a cataclysm and the keymaster and trying to take something back from him? those are the only things that i really remember of the past game but not even that is told in that content. you are right about this, ghostrunner is different from other game and that's why it is hard to play and figure out what is going on. i dont know how theres gonna be a campaign just make the game more simple to understand and if you do and you provide a campaign it should be more real cause something actually happened.

Ghostrunner is indeed different from most other games. And I can understand what you are trying to say. But not to change my experience, I like to have a story behind a game and that is what makes the game more engaging. Ghostrunner has a story. You can read it here. But we can't change the story to something that will be more engaging. There is no planned campaign right now. We will look into it and come up with ideas as time goes on. All I can say is that the game takes place in a post apocalyptic world. And it's your guess what happened in the past. A cataclysm, a cult of humans worshiping a giant cat and the keymaster. it would be better if you kept on creating more

Pet Squad Racing is a tiny game designed for one or more players, in which you (or your pets) race against each other to try to be the best. Pet Squad Racing is a cute, fast-paced, challenging and fun game that keeps you playing for hours and hours! The idea behind the game is based on the idea of "playing" with your favorite toys and pets! You get a toy vehicle and a little pet (can be a dog, cat, pig, fish, robot etc.) You play with this toy vehicle in a room of your own. There is only one room, but all players are independent from each other. But, you can't drive as fast as you would in other racing games! Instead, the driving feels like a real racing game and you can even feel the bumps. So it's all up to you, whether you actually want to play with your small pet or rather using it as a distraction, just for fun? The idea behind the game is to have fun with your pet, however, you can also use your pet as a distraction, to avoid dying, for more concentration on the game or whatever you like! Whether you are going alone or with your friends, you don't need anyone's permission to play, there are no rules, no score to aim for and no winner. It's all about having fun! Find your favorite pets and vehicles and start racing now! It's you, your friends and your pet all ready for this awesome racing game! Key Features: Simple controls, no learning curve! Awesome soundtracks with animated trophies 2 (or more) game modes, single race and multiplayer Race against your friends in LAN (only local games, no Internet) Challenge mode: complete tasks to unlock items Play with up to four players Your vehicle and the room that you play in are all yours. Upgrade the room with new stuff! You can use the room without a pet (vehicle and room are the same) You can even unlock as a different character! Up to 4 players Easy to learn, hard to master No time limit (though it feels like it when you fail miserably) Remix your own track with custom map pieces! Your own pets Your own rooms If you don't like the current rooms, feel free to create new ones with your own design! A game for small and big players! You
