There are lots of movie critics who would like us all to believe that you can't make a film anymore, that it's all been done. But if you're someone who believes in the possibilities of cinema and you start making your own movies then you find that you can make whatever you want. When I had my first film out there was a scene in the film where I played the piano and it was real. My piano was real. So the woman who was dancing up there, well the dancers were real. They were me. My films are not about me. I don't want to be famous. I made my first film to make a quid and see how far I could take it. I just wanted to make a really good film, but I didn't want to be a star. I didn't want to be any of those people. I just made a really good film. I don't know what it means to be really famous. I can't describe it. When I get recognized I just go: "Oh, it's you", because
