Wed, 12 Jul 2012 08:26:09 +000057909weekly0240News Blog Chief Justice (CJ): Committee to Address Criminalization of Marijuana in Illinois On Wednesday, March 20, the Illinois Supreme Court Criminal Law Committee will hear testimony at 10 a.m. at the Second Floor Hearing Room on the Springfield campus of the Illinois State Bar Association. The committee was established in 1971 as Article VI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, "Defender's Representative in Proceedings to Direct the People's Attorney Not to File a Criminal Complaint Against a person Possessing a Controlled Substance." It is composed of five associate justices, five serving and retired Supreme Court justices, the State's Attorney of Cook County, and the Cook County Deputy State's Attorney. Criminal Offenses for Marijuana and Possession Illinois has a broad civil statute criminalizing marijuana possession, which is applicable whenever it occurs. An individual is guilty of unlawful use of marijuana if he or she "knowingly does any of the following: (1) Possesses or does any of the following: Cannabis. Individuals under 18 years of age with or without a parent's consent possess, purchase or use cannabis; (2) Possesses or uses cannabis after being warned by a law enforcement officer that they are subject to arrest for possession of cannabis; or (
