Roblox is an online platform that allows users to create their own games, playable on both Mac and Windows, with in-game purchases and virtual currency. Within Roblox, players build their own "robux", which they can spend on virtual items for in-game characters that they create. The game itself was created by David Baszucki and Erik Cassel in 2004. They were inspired by the simple programming language of their youth and wanted to build a system that could be used to make games simple enough for anyone to use. This social game provides a sandbox for collaborative gameplay with a maximum number of players and a set of permissions available to their players. Roblox is a free-to-play game that allows players to create virtual spaces and play with others through the same game, with in-game purchases available for purchases for Robux. ► Follow us on Twitter: ► Join our Discord: We are always closed Sundays and Mondays.
