It's easy to use and extremely customizable. I would give it a thumbs up if it weren't for the fact that the developers keep patching over the functionality, so sometimes it will crash. It's really a shame because the functionality is so easy to use. Reviews 1 About Being a designer, I often had a hard time keeping up with my work and grades. I always felt bad leaving my project unfinished and forced to rush to catch my next bus. Luckily for me, I stumbled upon this app. It fills the gaps between projects and makes sure that I have no excuse left to miss a deadline. I'm proud to announce BareMinimum, as it's all about keeping grades. It's Secure shopping Your data is secure with us, we do not share your information with third parties.Thursday, December 8, 2009 Well, we took a little bit of a hiatus from the computer as we went Christmas shopping and waiting on my Dad to come home (still trying to recover from his surgery) so we weren't able to post much on our blog. But, I know you're all wondering what we have been doing... First, we had a fun time spending time with my parents and my brother and his family, hanging out and watching movies. Then, we went shopping with my mom, and I did get some blogging time in. And, we spent Christmas Eve and Christmas Day with my family. And, then we left to go home to spend more time with my Dad. Now, we are just hanging out at my parent's house, hoping that he's going to be home soon. He's a tough one... they think he's going to be home tomorrow, but it could be the week after. We have been going over our budget and talking about what has been going on with my family (we have 4 kids that are all about 1 year apart, so the baby #4 has been coming in the middle of the year for a few years now). We are going to have a meeting next week to work on our budget for 2010, and how to help each other out. Some of the money that we save may go to paying for my Dad's living expenses, if he does not have to go back to work for a while. We are just trying to figure out the best way to help each other out. We have been looking at our Christmas shopping lists, figuring out what we have to buy and what we have to make. We have one list that we're supposed to give out to kids at our church (who won't be getting gifts for us), so we're going to be making some goodies to give out to the kiddos. We made a cute carpenter and a clown - hope they turn out cute... I'm working on some stocking and stockings I'm going to put in the stockings we get as gifts... I have my Christmas music on my ipod and we just sang "snow in my stocking" and "We Wish You a Merry Christmas" (from Santa Claus is Coming to Town) and we
